Dear Shareholders,

We are reaching out to share news about one of our own. Kevin Herbe, a dedicated employee of Big Six Towers for the past 13 years has recently been diagnosed with Stage 4 Colorectal Cancer.

Many of you know Kevin as the calm, steady voice on the other end of the maintenance shop radio, taking your calls, logging work orders, and keeping operations running smoothly behind the scenes. He has been a vital part of the Big Six community, and now, Kevin needs our support.

The road ahead includes aggressive treatment, hospital stays, and significant medical expenses. To help ease the financial burden, a GoFundMe campaign has been set up in Kevin's name.

We invite all shareholders to consider donating or sharing the link to help make a difference in Kevin's fight. Every contribution, no matter the size, brings hope and support.
