Re: BUILDING LINK QR CODE

As previously communicated BUILDING LINK is coming!
Big Six Towers will be introducing Building Link an online service to help you communicate with Management using your laptop, tablet, or smartphone via the Building Link site.

To fill out the form using your smartphone or tablet, please access your camera and point it over the QR code below. It will take you to the fillable form. After you fill out your information, please hit submit and it will automatically process to the Big Management email. This method helps save time and a trip to the Management office.
